About Cancer

Cancer is a major killer in Malaysia. Risk to cancer can be reduced by practicing a healthy lifestyle. Early detection of cancer is important as cancer can be cured.

About Us

Cancer Resource & Education (CaEd) was set up in 2003 by Universiti Putra Malaysia (UPM) in collaboration with Cornell University to fight against cancer by providing the much needed information on disease treatment and care. Now CaEd is known as CaRE. Our program is evidence-based.

Goals

- To develop and provide Cancer Information, Education and Support Service (CIES) to Malaysians affected by cancer.
- To develop human and institutional capacity to sustain the above effort.

CaRE

CaRE provides the following programs/activities:

1. Information
 - Publication
 - Portal & Website
2. Education
 - Education program (monthly)
